

Is Your Business Spilling Revenue?

How data blindness costs coffee shops thousands—and the exact extraction method used to fix it.

Invisible Loss

MARKETING WAS A SHOT IN THE DARK.

The Struggle: 3 Locations.
Zero visibility on rush hours.
Inventory guessing games.

The Result: Staffing was reactive.
Marketing budgets were fired blindly.

"The owners didn't know when the rushes happened or what products actually brought people in."

+31.8% Revenue Growth

May 2023 Performance

Total Revenue: $156,730 (+$37.8k vs last month)

Order Volume: 33,527 (+32.3%)

Quantity Sold: 48,233 (+32.3%)

Data Modeling Engine

Strategy

The Build: Created a custom ecosystem to consolidate numbers from all three locations.

The Engine: Advanced DAX and Data Modeling turned static rows into dynamic intelligence.

The Goal: Move from intuition to evidence.

The Weekend Myth

Strategic Shift: Marketing pivoted immediately to target the M-F commuter crowd, rather than the weekend lounge.

What's Actually Brewing?

Inventory optimization ensures the espresso hopper never runs dry, while low-margin items are de-prioritized.

The 'Sunday 9 AM' Anomaly.

Insight: The single busiest hour of the month.

Revenue: $4,912
generated in one hour.

Action: Rosters adjusted to flood the floor on Sunday mornings to catch the micro-rush.

Data Drives Decisions.

- Staffing: Optimized schedules for the Sunday spike and Weekday flow.
- Inventory: Stocking heavily for the Espresso and Chai demand.
- Growth: May 30th deep dive showed a single day driving 20% of monthly revenue.
- Clarity: Managers now order and plan with total confidence.

I Turn Numbers into Narrative.
